

Individual Research Form

Ancestor name:

Includes anglicised/language names, skin names, nicknames, aliases, stage names and variations.

Their relationship to you:

Birth: Date/Place

Source

Baptism: Date/Church/Religion

Source

Death: Date/Place/Cause

Source

Burial: Cemetery/Plot number

Source

Parents names:

Source

Source

Marriage/s: Spouse name/Date/Place

Source

Children: Name/Birth/Death/Marriage and other details (oldest to youngest)

Source

Siblings names: (oldest to youngest)

Source

Occupation:

Source

Schools/Education

Source

First Nations language or nation group:

For more information refer to AustLang. collection.aiatsis.gov.au/austlang/search

Source

Mission, reserve, institution, adoption or foster records: Name/Date/Place

Link-Up provides family tracing and reunion services to survivors and families of the Stolen Generations throughout Australia. aiatsis.gov.au/family-history/you-start/link

Find and Connect helps you locate records relating to children's homes, orphanages, and of children placed into institutionalised care and also offers counselling and support services.

findandconnect.gov.au

Source

Arrival to Australia:

Convict Soldier Assisted immigrant Unassisted immigrant

Ship crew Other:

Ship: Name/Details

Departure Port: Name/Date

Arrival Port: Name/Date

Convict Record: Crime/Sentence/Assignment/Ticket of Leave/Certificate of Freedom/Absolute or Conditional Pardon

Source

Compiled by:

 Date:

Military Service: Service/Regiment/Unit/Years of service

Source

Learn how to get started with family history

nla.gov.au/research-guides/family-history