

Old Lines

believed seven persons had perished. the excite which was capsized during a squall, and that they

coming into town from Cowie's Creek, who re by the Rev. George M. ade, who met a man and boy ascende of the accident confirmed the intelligence

New Lines

believed seven persons had perished. the excite

which was capsized during a squall, and that they

coming into town from Cowie's Creek, who re

by the Rev. George Slade, who met a man and boy scene of the accident confirmed the intelligence